The Bank of New York Mellon f/k/a The Bank of New York successor in interest to JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., successor in interest to Bank One, National Association, as Trustee for CSFB Mortgage-Backed Pass-Through Certificates, Series 2003-27 ("Creditor"), secured creditor of the above-entitled Debtor, Schulte Properties, LLC, ("Debtor"), hereby objects to the Debtor's Disclosure Statement Describing Chapter 11 Plan filed by Debtor in the above-referenced matter. MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. LOAN HISTORY

Creditor's claim is evidenced by a promissory note executed by William R. Schulte and dated May 5, 2003, in the original principal sum of $960,000.00 (the "Note"). Together, the Note and Deed of Trust are collectively referred to hereafter as the "Loan".

17 B. BANKRUPTCY HISTORY

18 William and Melani Schulte

19 On June 8, 2009, William R. Schulte and Melani Schulte filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 7
20 as Case Number 09-19658-bam. Said case was dismissed on or about August 4, 2009.

21 On October 11, 2009, Melani Schulte filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 as Case Number 22 09-29123-mkn (the "Second 2009 Bankruptcy").

23
25
26 //.

1 On February 17, 2010, Creditor filed its Proof of Claim in Case Number 09-29123-mkn secured by 2 the Subject Property with a total outstanding balance in the amount of $873,415.57, and a pre-petition
3 arrearage claim of $77,562.88. See Claim No. 63-1 in the Second 2009 Bankruptcy.

4 On November 23, 2010, the Melani Schulte filed a proposed Third Amended Plan of Reorganization
5 in Case Number 09-29123-mkn, which provided that the claim for 509 Canyon Greens Drive, Las Vegas, 6 NV 89144 would be “unimpaired and paid in full in accordance with the terms of its related note and 7 mortgage”. See Second 2009 Bankruptcy Docket No. 834.

8 On March 8, 2011, the court entered an Order Confirming the above-referenced Third Amended 9 Plan of Reorganization. See Second 2009 Bankruptcy Docket No. 912.

10 On December 15, 2015, Melani Schulte obtained a chapter 11 discharge in Case Number 09-29123-
11 mkn. See the Second 2009 Bankruptcy Docket No. 1182.

12
13 Schulte Properties, LLC

14 One day after the Property had been conveyed to Schulte Properties, LLC and just five (5) days
15 after registering the business entity with the Nevada Secretary of State, Schulte Properties, LLC on May 16 31, 2017 filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 as Case Number 17-12883-mkn (the “2017
17 Bankruptcy”). The 2017 Bankruptcy was voluntarily dismissed on January 16, 2018, after Wells Fargo
18 Bank, N.A. obtained relief from the automatic stay on the property located at 1528 Splinter Rock Way, 19 North Las Vegas, NV 89031.

20 On May 10, 2018, Schulte Properties, LLC filed the instant voluntary petition under Chapter 11 as 21 Case Number 18-12734-mkn. Melani Schulte is the President and Manager of Schulte Properties, LLC.

22 On October 11, 2018, Creditor filed its amended proof of claim secured by the Subject Property with 23 a total outstanding balance in the amount of $1,357,150.48, and a pre-petition arrearage claim of $802,507.89
26

1 as Claim 11-2. Pursuant to the filed Claim, prior to the filing of the instant bankruptcy proceeding, no
2 payments had been made on the loan since November, 2011.

3 On February 27, 2019, Debtor filed its proposed Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement.
4 Debtor's Disclosure Statement suggests the instant bankruptcy action is necessary given problems
5 associated with management of the secured loans on the properties as they relate to the confirmed plan in 6 the Second 2009 Bankruptcy; specifically, the Debtor alleges certain lenders have failed to comply with the 7 prior Confirmation Order and misapplication of post-confirmation payments pursuant to said Order.

9 With regard to the subject property and its related loan, the treatment proposed under Class 1(a) is 10 as follows:

11 BYNM's claim shall be impaired and paid the amount of its Allowed Claim, amortized at 5% 12 interest over 30 years (26 payments per year, or a total of 780 payments), and in accordance 13 with all other terms of its related note and mortgage except as otherwise set forth herein. The 14 Debtor believes that the amount owing on this claim is $640,905.96. The Allowed Claim shall 15 be paid on a true bi-weekly basis, with payments applied every other week by way of an ACH
16 payment or similar payment as determined by the Debtor in the amount of $1,587.17, and the 17 Creditor shall apply each payment to principal and interest towards the Allowed Claim
18 amount as each payment is received. The Debtor shall pay, outside of escrow, all taxes, 19 insurance, and HOA dues applicable to this Claim when each is due, and shall provide 20 Creditor with proof of payment of such upon the reasonable request of Creditor. Creditor
21 shall not attempt to pay any taxes, insurance, or HOA dues applicable to the Property or to 22 make changes related to the taxes or insurance for the Property unless Debtor has failed to 23 make any such payment and Debtor has failed to cure any default in payment within ten (10)
24 days after written notice of default by Creditor sent to Debtor at the Debtor's mailing address, 25 9811 W. Charleston Suite 2-351, Las Vegas, Nevada 89117. The Debtor may make additional 26 payments of principal, which shall immediately reduce the principal balance, without penalty.
Arrearages, if any, shall be included in the Plan payment. The cure amount shall be $0. In the event that the Court reduces any Allowed Claim owing to this creditor or enters an award for damages against the holder of this claim, any payment due to the holder of this claim shall be reduced by the amount set forth in any such Order.

23 Creditor now objects to the Chapter 11 Disclosure Statement filed herein by the Debtor.

1 II.

2 LEGAL ARGUMENT

3 A. THE DEBTOR'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FAILS TO CONTAIN ADEQUATE
 4 INFORMATION IN VIOLATION OF SECTION 1125 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

5 1. Legal Standard

6 Title 11 U.S.C. § 1125(b) provides that acceptance or rejection of a proposed Plan of 7 reorganization may not be solicited unless the holder of a claim or interest to whom the solicitation is 8 made is provided with the proposed plan or summary thereof and “a written disclosure statement
 9 approved, after notice and a hearing, by the court as containing adequate information.” 11 U.S.C.
 10 §1125(b). To approve a Disclosure Statement, the court must first determine that it contains “adequate 11 information.” In re Unichem Corp., 72 B.R. 95, 96 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1987). Adequate information means 12 that the Disclosure Statement must clearly and succinctly inform the average creditor “what it is going 13 to get, when it is going to get it, and what contingencies there are to getting its distribution.” In re
 14 Ferretti, 128 B.R. 16, 19 (Bankr. D. N.H. 1991). “Adequate information” is information of a kind, and 15 in sufficient detail, to enable a “hypothetical investor” typical of the holders of claims and interests in a 16 case to make an informed judgment about the Plan. 11 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1). This includes financial 17 information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors’ decision to accept or reject the 18 Chapter 11 Plan and information relevant to the risks posed to creditors under the Plan. See, In re
 19 Metrocraft Publishing Services, Inc., 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1984).

 21 2. The Debtor’s Disclosure Statement fails to provide sufficient information regarding 22 the possible claims it may assert against creditors, which prevents Creditor from determining how its claim may be affected and the feasibility of the Plan.

23 The Debtor’s Disclosure Statement reflects that potential claims against creditors may exist, but 24 provides no information regarding the nature, extent, value, specific creditors which would be affected,
 25 or the ability of the Debtor to assert any such causes of action when it was not a party to the Second
 26 2009 Bankruptcy Case confirmation order. While the Debtor has filed ex-parte motions relating to 2004

1 examinations of creditors, there is no explanation in the Disclosure Statement as to the timeline of that 2 litigation and/or the effect it may have on the individual claims or the reorganization as a whole. Without 3 such information, Creditor is unable to adequately assess the treatment of its claim or the likelihood that 4 any proposed reorganization would be successful.

5 Moreover, Debtor asserted in its opposition to Creditor's Motion for Relief from the Automatic
6 Stay in the instant case, that it believes the instant claim was modified as part of the Second 2009
7 Bankruptcy confirmation order, reducing the claim amount to $807,141.58. See e.g., ECF 73, p. 7. The 8 Second 2009 Bankruptcy Plan and related documents, however, confirm that Creditor's claim was 9 unimpaired. The Plan which was confirmed reflects the claim was "shall be unimpaired and paid in full 10 accordance with the terms of its related note and mortgage" and that because Creditor was unimpaired, 11 it was not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. See, Second 2009 Bankruptcy, ECF 834, p. 2. The 12 ballot summary filed in the Second 2009 Bankruptcy confirms that Creditor's class was not entitled to 13 vote on the Plan. See, Second 2009 Bankruptcy, ECF 880, p. 3. Similarly, Debtors' Memorandum in 14 Support of Confirmation confirms "Class 1 is subdivided into separate classes, comprised of the Debtors 15 secured first trust deed claims, all of which are unimpaired." Second 2009 Bankruptcy, ECF 879, p. 4.
16 It further notes that "The Plan reflects that Classes 1, 3, and 4 are unimpaired and, thus, are conclusively 17 presumed to have accepted the Plan." Id. at p. 11. As such, it appears that the language upon which the 18 Debtors rely in the confirmation order was not a bifurcation or modification of Creditor's claim as it is 19 inconsistent with the bankruptcy code, inconsistent with the Plan, would deprive Creditor of its 20 unsecured claim for the remainder of the claim, and would all have required the Debtor to have 21 intentionally taken such fraudulent action surreptitiously for the sole purpose of depriving Creditor of 22 notice and the opportunity to either object or vote and, in doing so, would have likely further constituted
23 intentional misrepresentations made to the Court. As such, without further clarification on the basis and 24 scope of the Debtor's alleged claims against Creditor, Creditor cannot determine what amount it will 25 receive under the Plan, what claims it may have against the Schultes and their prior counsel as it relates 26 to the 2009 Bankruptcy Case, the impact on the feasibility of the Plan, and whether, for example, an

1 §1111(b) election would be in Creditor's best interest. For this reason, the Disclosure Statement must 2 be denied.

3 3. The Disclosure Statement fails to provide sufficient information regarding how this
4 reorganization is likely to be successful in light of the previous confirmation by the Schultes
5 and bankruptcy filings by the Debtor.

6 Debtor's Disclosure Statement fails to provide sufficient information regarding why the current 7 bankruptcy case is necessary when a prior bankruptcy case was voluntarily dismissed a mere four (4)
8 months prior to the instant case and when there is a confirmed Plan in the Second 2009 Bankruptcy
9 Case. The claims asserted here regarding inaccuracies in the application of payments are more 10 appropriately asserted as part of the Second 2009 Bankruptcy Case, but moreover, given that the 11 Schultes were unwilling and/or unable to comply with the payment requirements in the Second 2009
12 Bankruptcy Case, there is no explanation as to why or how this bankruptcy case is likely to be any 13 different. The Schultes became delinquent on payments owed pursuant to the Second 2009 Bankruptcy
14 Case and likely because of that delinquency, now attempt to remodel the loans instead of exercising
15 their remedies in the Second 2009 Bankruptcy Case for adjudicating a dispute relating to any contempt
16 of the confirmation order. Without further information as to why this Debtor – a shell holding company
17 for the Schulte's properties – will now be able to maintain ongoing operations, Creditor is unable to 18 assess the relevant risks posed by the Plan and any good or bad faith relating to the same.

19 4. The Disclosure Statement fails to provide sufficient information regarding how a 20 reorganization is possible given that the loans cannot be modified.

21 As argued more fully below, Creditor's claim, if not every creditor's claim in the case, cannot 22 be modified without running afoul of 11 U.S.C. §524(e)'s prohibition on modifying the liability of a 23 non-debtor, in this case William and Melani Schulte. In light of the inability of the loans to be modified,
24 Creditor lacks information in order to allow it to be able to ascertain the likelihood that the reorganization
25 will be effective and feasible. As the Disclosure Statement both fails to provide this information, and 26 because the Plan cannot be confirmed in its current state anyway, the Disclosure Statement must be denied.

5. The Disclosure Statement fails to provide information regarding the basis of the modification of Creditor's claim.

Creditor's Proof of Claim reflects and outstanding balance of $1,357,150.48 with a pre-petition arrearage of $802,507.89. See, Claim #11-2. The Claim has not been objected to and the Disclosure Statement indicates the Property is oversecured. Despite that, the Plan proposes to limit the amount of Creditor's claim to $640,905.96 without any explanation or legal basis. 11 U.S.C. § 506(a) provides that "an allowed claim of a creditor secured by a lien on property in which the estate has an interest...is a secured claim to the extent of the value of such creditor's interest in the estate's interest in such property." 11 U.S.C. § 506(a). As the Debtor's own Disclosure Statement indicates the value of the Property is above Creditor's claim, there is no basis for the reduction and no information which would allow Creditor to determine the same. Moreover, the Disclosure Statement does not indicate how the $716,244.52 difference would be treated – whether it would be disallowed, treated as an unsecured claim, or otherwise provided for. Again, there is also no information regarding the possibility of reorganization in the event the claim were not allowed to be reduced or otherwise modified. As such, the Disclosure Statement must be denied.

B. THE APPROVAL OF THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT MUST BE DENIED AS THE DEBTOR'S PLAN IS PATENTLY UNCONFIRMABLE.

1. Legal Standard

The Court may refuse to permit solicitation of a plan acceptances if, based on the proposed disclosure statement, it were to determine that the proposed Plan violates applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code on its face. In re Arnold, 471 B.R. 578, 586 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2012); see also 7 Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer, Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1125.03[4] at 1125–23 (16th ed. 2011) ("most courts will not approve a disclosure statement if the underlying plan is clearly unconfirmable on its face") (citations omitted); In re Beyond.com Corp., 289 B.R. 138, 140 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2003); In re Main Street AC, Inc., 234 B.R. 771, 775 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1999). "If, on the face of the plan, the plan could not be confirmed, then the Court will not subject the estate to the expense of soliciting votes and seeking confirmation.” In re Pecht, 57 B.R. 137, 139 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1986); see also, In re Cardinal Congregate I, 121 B.R. 760, 764 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1990) (disapproval of the adequacy of a disclosure statement may be appropriate “where it describes a plan of reorganization which is so fatally flawed that confirmation is impossible.”). Here, even without addressing the specific valuation, maturity date, payment amount, and interest rate terms of the claim proposed, for which Creditor objects to but for which are more appropriately addressed at confirmation, the Plan facially violates the bankruptcy code and cannot be confirmed.

2. There is no contractual privity between the parties and Debtor cannot modify Creditor’s claim without violating 11 U.S.C. §524(e).

The most substantially fatal flaw with the Debtor’s Disclosure Statement and Plan is that the Debtor cannot modify the underlying claim as the Debtor, Schulte Properties, LLC, does not have contractual privity with Creditor, and any modification would impermissibly modify the liability of non-debtors William and Melani Schulte. The Debtor has no contractual relationship with Creditor or liability on the underlying debt. By proposing to modify the instant claim, Debtor is unilaterally forcing Creditor to extend financing to Debtor on terms that the Debtor proposes. Indeed, Debtor proposes to pick and choose which portions of the prior loan agreement and confirmation most benefit it, and discard those which do not. This modification, however, is impermissible under the Bankruptcy Code and the Debtor cannot confirm any plan which proposes to do the same.

Even if there was a good faith basis for a modification, such a modification of William and Melani’s respective personal liability, as proposed by the Plan, would violate 11 U.S.C. §524. Section 524(a) provides for the discharge of personal liability on certain debts of the debtor. Section 524 does not, however, provide for the release or modification of personal liability for a third party non-debtor. To the contrary, 11 U.S.C. § 524(e) expressly provides that a discharge of a debt of the debtor does not affect the liability of any other entity on, or the property of any other entity for, such debt. 11 U.S.C. § 524(e). The Ninth Circuit has repeatedly recognized this and reiterated for over two decades that the

1 bankruptcy court does not have the authority to release the liability of non-debtors, and a plan which
 2 contains such a provision may not be confirmed. Deocampo v. Potts, 836 F.3d 1134, 1143 (9th Cir.
 3 2016)(noting that “we have ‘repeatedly held without exception’ that, in a Chapter 11 proceeding,
 4 ‘§524(e) precludes bankruptcy courts from discharging the liabilities of non-debtors.’”(citing In re
 5 Lowenschuss, 67 F.3d 1394 (9th Cir. 1995)); see also, Stratosphere Litig. L.L.C. v. Grand Casinos, Inc.,
 6 298 F.3d 1137, 1143 (9th Cir. 2002); In re American Hardwoods, Inc., 885 F.2d 621, 626 (9th Cir. 1989);
 7 In re Sun Valley Newspapers, Inc., 171 B.R. 71, 77 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1994).

8 The Debtor’s Plan, however, seeks to alter and modify the personal liability of non-debtors
 9 William Schulte and Melani Schulte – the President and Manager of the Debtor. Here, Debtor is neither
 10 liable for nor a party to any of the Note and Deed of Trust or the Second 2009 Bankruptcy Case’s
 11 confirmation order. Despite this fact, Debtor’s Plan seeks to modify the terms of the Loans on the basis
 12 that Debtor received an interest in the Property from the Schultes. The Schulte’s however, remain liable
 13 for the debts pursuant to the loan documents and Second 2009 Bankruptcy Case’s confirmation order.
 14 The Plan proposes to reduce the secured claim of Creditor, disposes of the arrears, extends the loan term,
 15 and alters the payment structure of the loan. Clearly, Debtor’s proposed treatment of the claim, then,
 16 amounts to a drastic modification of the obligations of the Schultes, neither of whom are debtors in the 17 instant case. Assuming Debtor’s Plan proposes to completely eliminate the creditor-borrower
 18 relationship (which appears to be the case), the Plan clearly violates Section 524(e) as it seeks to 19 discharge the liability of a non-debtor on the Notes and Deeds of Trust. Specifically, if the non-debtor
 20 obligor is no longer required to make principal and interest payments on the loan or otherwise comply
 21 with the terms of the Notes and Deeds of Trust, the Plan necessarily seeks to discharge the personal 22 liability of the non-filing obligors (i.e., the Schultes). Based upon the foregoing, Creditor’s claim cannot 23 be modified in the Debtor’s Plan as such a modification would effectively discharge the liability of the 24 non-filing Schultes in violation of Section 524(e).

25 Further, if Debtor is permitted to modify Creditor’s claim in his Plan, it will result in substantial 26 confusion as to the rights and obligations between the Schultes, Debtor, and Creditor, which, in turn, will result in two conflicting obligations. Indeed, the two parties (i.e., the Schultes and Debtor) would

1 be responsible for making payments on the loan under different terms. The Schultes would be 2 responsible for making principal and interest payments pursuant to the terms of the note and deed of 3 trusts, as modified by the confirmed Plan, and would be subject to the various rights and responsibilities
4 prescribed under those documents. However, Debtor would be obligated to make payments on the loan
5 pursuant to the provisions of its confirmed Plan. These conflicting obligations pose an administrative 6 burden for all parties.

8 3. The Debtor violates the absolute priority rule.

9 Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1129(b)(2)(B) a plan is fair and equitable with respect to a class of 10 unsecured creditors if they are paid in full or no junior class retains any interest in estate property except 11 that in a case in which the debtor is an individual, the debtor may retain property included in the estate
12 under section 1115, subject to the requirements of subsection (a)(14). The Ninth Circuit has confirmed 13 that the absolute priority rule applies in all Chapter 11 cases. In re Zachary, 811 F.3d 1191 (9th Cir.
14 2016).

15 In this case, Creditor's security interest in the Property is senior to Schulte Properties, LLC's
16 interest in the Property. The Plan does not provide for Creditor's claim in full, but the entity attempts 17 to retain an interest in the Property as a junior class member in violation of the absolute priority rule.
18 However, as noted above, because the Plan proposes to de facto bifurcate Creditor's claim, the remainder
19 of Creditor's claim would be treated as an unsecured claim to be paid pro rata with the other unsecured
20 creditors. As such, the Plan violates the absolute priority rule and cannot be confirmed.
